Cabinet Minister Says:

City to Get Priority On Building Supplies

Supplies for Edmonton's ambitious home building program were to be given a top priority, Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction, assured Mayor Harry Ainlay during an interview Monday afternoon.

The minister passed this information along later in the afternoon, when he was questioned on the number of Wartime Houses still to be built in the city.

"As I recall it we intend to construct about 300 wartime houses here this summer and we are giving Edmonton builders and contractors priorities which should assure them of ample materials for their program," he said.

He expressed himself as pleased with Edmonton's progress and with the ambitious spirit which permeated the city.

There was tremendous building activity in Vancouver as well, Mr. Howe indicated, but said he failed to see what there was to maintain that city at its present, or its projected level.

He denied that he had ever termed rents of $60 to $70 or more, as low cost housing. He was reported in some quarters as having made this statement in the House of Commons.

"I did not say that the presence of these higher rent units decreased the strain on the lower rent dwellings," Mr. Howe said. "There were many people now in the lower rent dwellings who were well able to afford to pay the higher rents, which would leave their present accommodation available to others."

However, the minister added that priorities allotted to Housing Enterprises Ltd. were soon to be terminated so that lower rent units could be constructed.

Queen Elizabeth Taken Off Bar

LONDON, April 15 (AP)—The Press Association said tonight that the Queen Elizabeth had been taken off the bar on which she had been stuck outside Southampton harbor for 24 hours.

THE REPORT said the liner, largest ever constructed, moved slowly off Bramble Bank, eight miles from Southampton, at high tide at about 8:30 p.m. (2:30 p.m. CST).

Watchers from the shore saw the ship disappear from view in the fog a few seconds after she had slipped off the sandbank, the Press Association said.

DIES IN FIRE

L'AMABLE, Ont., April 15. — (CP)—Thomas Gaffney, 85-year-old farmer of this community 65 miles north of Belleville, was burned to death when fire destroyed his two-story house early today.

Council Member Named

North Gets Spokesman

OTTAWA, April 15 (CP)—For the first time in history, the vast Northwest Territories have their own spokesman—other than civil servants—in the government council which governs them.

RESOURCES Minister Glen, it was learned today, has named J. G. McEwen, manager of Yellowknife mine (Negus) as a member of the Northwest Territories council, the government body which long has fathered that undeveloped region of the Dominion.

At the same time, the council has also been broadened to give a voice to the defence department in a region where its interests have been increasing. The new member is Air Commodore H. B. Godwin.

The council was formerly largely a mines and resources department body but its broadening is considered a reflection of Canada's policy of developing her north-land.

THIS HAS LED also to the appointment of L. C. Audette of the external affairs department to the membership. However there have been representatives of that department on the council before.

The present commissioner for the territories is H. L. Keenleyside, deputy minister of mines and resources, and the deputy commissioner is Roy Gibson of the same department.

Other members of the council are Commissioner S. T. Wood of the RCMP and R. A. Hoy, head of the Indian Affairs branch of the mines department.

Warns Against Boosting Prices

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL

OTTAWA, April 15 (CP)—The Commons, reconvening yesterday from an Easter recess during which the government extended its de-control program, heard Finance Minister Abbott warn industrialists that the government has the power to reimpose price ceilings "in cases where it is considered to be in the public interest to do so."

WHILE EXPRESSING the hope that the re-imposition of ceilings would not be necessary, Mr. Abbott said:

"In the case of some abnormal situation where the government felt that the public were being exploited, speaking for myself at any rate, I can say that... We would not have any hesitation in asking for powers which I feel sure the house would give us."

Shortly before the house adjourned for the recess, April 2, Mr. Abbott announced the lifting of price control on a wide range of articles. Later, he announced that authorization would be given for increasing housing rentals by 10 per cent.

Nazi Puppet Ruler To Die on Gallows

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia, April 15 (AP)—Dr. Josef Tiso, round-faced pariah priest who became president of the Nazi puppet state of Slovakia during the war, was sentenced today to die on the gallows for crimes against the state. The verdict was handed down by a special national court in session here on the case since Dec. 2. Sentenced to death in absentia was Dr. Ferdinand Dvorkan, Tiso's foreign minister.

Record-Smashing Air Bomber Roars Into Airport on Round-World Hop

Roaring in triumphantly from the northwest in glorious Alberta sunshine, the Reynolds Bombshell, converted attack bomber, was within a few short hours of a new round-the-world aerial record as it glided smoothly to a landing at Edmonton Municipal Airport at 1:57 p.m. Tuesday.

Smiling with pride as he stepped from the cabin of the trim two-motored aircraft, at the end of a swift non-stop hop from Adak Island in the Aleutians, Milton Reynolds, millionaire pen manufacturer of Chicago, was virtually certain of beating the record set by Howard Hughes in 1938. The time of that trip was 91 hours and 31 minutes. The Reynolds plane will also have flown 6,000 miles further than Hughes.

REYNOLDS was confident that the Bombshell's time would be under 70 hours for the world girdling flight.

The landing at Edmonton airport had not been scheduled, but was made necessary for refueling because mechanical trouble had forced a landing at Adak.

The round-the-world fliers had originally planned to refuel at Anchorage after taking off from Japan and flying directly from Anchorage to New York.

THE PILOT of the Bombshell is William Odom of Roslyn, New York. Reynolds, himself has been the navigator.

One of the most air-minded cities in the world, Edmonton rallied swiftly to accord the new monarch of the air, a resounding welcome.

Hundreds of citizens streamed to the airport area to watch for the arrival of the plane, despite

HOPES FOR NEW WORLD RECORD:

Above is the 400-mile-an-hour converted bomber in which Milton Reynolds, Chicago business man, landed at the Edmonton airport early Tuesday afternoon. This is the last re-fueling point for the big plane before it makes the last dash for New York—and perhaps a new record.

Soviet Blamed for Parley Disagreement

U.S. Takes Case to Stalin

By R. H. Shackford

MOSCOW, April 15 —

(BUP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall took his "case" to Generalissimo Stalin at the Kremlin tonight after blaming the Soviet Union for the primary responsibility for the failure of this conference to reach any basic agreement.

ACCOMPANIED by Ambassador W. Bedell Smith, aid interpreter Charles Bohlen, Marshall arrived at the Kremlin at 10 p.m. Moscow time (2 p.m. EST) for his audience with Stalin.

It was Marshall's first trip inside the Kremlin. Both British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault had conferred with Stalin earlier in the conference.

Marshall's decision to go to the Kremlin had been awaited for several days.

THERE WAS no advance warning of tonight's conference. An announcement was made by the American press office at exactly 10 p.m. when Marshall and his party were due to be passing through the Kremlin gates.

In addition to conference matters, Marshall was expected to dis-

Pilotless Plane Successful

Britain Tests Rocket Missile

LONDON, April 15 (BUP)—Britain's pilotless radio controlled rocket missile, "The Stinger," completed its flight successfully, according to an announcement today by the ministry of supply.

The rocket is of the orthodox monoplane design with a cylindrical fuselage seven and one half feet long and weighs 738 pounds. Four men can assemble it in less than 90 seconds.

According to the announcement, the missile is powered by four 75 pound thrust rockets and has a maximum speed of more than 500 miles per hour.

The rocket was ordered by the government during the war as a counter-measure to Japanese suicide planes. The war ended before it could be developed but the ministry of supply asked the Fairey Aviation Company to continue work on a research basis.

Within seven months the rocket was given its first test flights. It has now reached the stage where a ground controller can pilot the missile by radio through a series of complicated aerial manoeuvres.

To Change Law

Truman Prepares Arms Embargo

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—President Truman today proposed sweeping changes in the United States neutrality law to permit the government to place embargoes on shipments of arms to unfriendly countries.

IN A MESSAGE to Congress the President said he must be free to act "in accordance with our position in the United Nations."

Under section 12 of the Neutrality Act, Truman said, the requirement of impartiality forces the secretary of state to "treat aggressor and aggrieved, peace-maker and trouble-maker equally by granting every application for the licence for the exportation of any arms, ammunition or implements of war unless such action would be in violation of a treaty."

"SUCH A PROVISION of law is no longer consistent with this country's commitments and requirements," Truman's message said.

He also submitted proposed legislation to give the government discretion in the administration of controls over licences, not only for arms but over other materials designed for military use.

Wallace "Selling America Short"

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Leading Democrats swelled the chorus of angry congressional blasts at Henry A. Wallace today but President Truman kept mum as the United States senate prepared to resume debate on the Greek-Turkish aid bill.

Senators M. E. Tydings (Md.) and Scott Lucas (Ill.), members of the senate Democratic policy committee, criticized Wallace in words even sharper than those some Republicans used in assailing the former vice-president for his attacks in England on the Truman foreign policy program.

Lucas, one of the first Democrats to raise his voice last week in protesting against Wallace's statements that the United States

Ask Early Call Halifax Election

OTTAWA, April 15. — (CP) — Early issuance of a writ for the federal by-election in the vacant constituency of Halifax was urged in the Commons Monday by John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader.

Mr. Bracken said the riding had been without a member more than 200 days, longer than any other constituency recently vacant, and asked why the government had not issued the writ at the same time by-elections were called in the ridings of Pontiac, Richelieu-Verchères and Portage la Prairie.

is embarking on a career of "imperialism," told reporters:

"Henry Wallace is a merchant of confusion—selling America short."

Manitoba Faces Threat of Floods

WINNIPEG, April 15 (CP)—The threat of serious floods in Manitoba grew stronger today with reports the Assiniboine river burst its banks at two points between Headingley, 14 miles west of Winnipeg and Portage la Prairie, 54 miles west. Earlier the Red river had inundated a new government dock, a golf course and a stretch of highway in the Selkirk district, 24 miles northeast of Winnipeg.

BAKSI WINS

LONDON, April 15 (CP)—Joe Baksi of United States tonight scored a seventh-round technical knockout over Bruce Woodcock, British Empire heavyweight champion, and thereby won a June title world championship fight with Joe Louis in New York.

Aldermen Approve Of Daylight Saving

Edmonton's city council Monday night approved the recommendation of city commissioners that daylight saving time be instituted from April 27 to Sept. 28 inclusive.

This decision was taken following a lengthy discussion in which it was suggested a commitment should be obtained from the Edmonton public and separate school boards that school hours should conform with the hours designated in the proclamation.

Mayor Harry Ainlay said the school boards had power to change the school hours, and admitted he had not taken up the question of obeying the proclamation with school board officials.

Jewish Refugees Landed in Custody

HAIFA, April 15 (AP)—Some 2,700 uncertified Jewish immigrants, shouting slogans like "down with the Bevin government," were landed in British naval custody today from the steamship Guardian and started immediately to detention camps on Cyprus.

The bedraggled refugees raised to view two bodies of men they said were killed when the Guardian, renamed the Theodor Herzl, was boarded Sunday night eight miles off Tel Aviv. Several other Jews and some British sailors aboard were handgued.

DESTROYERS towed the ship into harbor and the Jews landed without skirmishes. The first 400 were placed on a corvette for removal to Cyprus. Others were placed aboard immigrant ships to await shuttle service by corvette.

Police launches dropped depth charges continuously as a precaution against a possible mine attack by swimmers during the transshipment.

ALDERMEN voted in favor of a resolution approving the commissioners' recommendation with the exception of Ald. Sidney Parsons who refrained from voting on the ground that council did not have the power to instruct the mayor to make the proclamation. Ald. A. Bisset, K.C., voted against the motion.

He moved that the question be referred to the mayor to take whatever action he deemed fit, and stated that if a proclamation was issued setting up daylight saving time he would support the experiment until it showed detrimental results.

He said he had opposed daylight saving, but the plebiscites taken last November resulted in a majority of citizens favoring its institution. This, he said, was a mandate to the mayor to institute it.

Ald. C. E. Gariepy, K.C., said the survey made of business houses—and householders laid good ground work for issuing the proclamation.

ALD. SIDNEY BOWCOTT was critical of the attitude of farmers.

Federal Controller Says:

Lumber Exports Down

In an effort to increase the flow of lumber and lumber products to the domestic Canadian market, aimed at speeding up home building and construction, export quotas have been considerably decreased, it was announced here Tuesday by W. E. Uren, federal timber and steel controller and controller of building priorities.

Bomb Shelters Worry Regina

REGINA, April 15 (CP)—A demand to know why city council had not made provision in its 10-year works program for underground bomb shelters to protect Regilians in the event of a third world war was voiced last night at a meeting of the Regina Trades and Labor council.

William Herbert, a delegate, said Regina would be "in direct line of such a war."

Chairman Ralph Haseltine said he did not know what city council had done on the subject but "we might ask them."

Britain Doubles Levy on Tobacco

LONDON, April 15 (CP)—A "brutal and deliberate" increase of 50 per cent in the import duty on leaf tobacco was announced today in the British budget. Hugh Dalton, chancellor of the exchequer, told the Commons that Britain cannot afford the dollars she now is paying for tobacco, 80 per cent of it imported from the United States.

Sentence Japanese For War Crimes

YOKOHAMA, April 15 (AP)—Two Japanese convicted of mistreating Canadian and British prisoners of war were sentenced to a total of 15 years at hard labor today by a United States army military tribunal. Ryugo Kanetsuna, found guilty of mistreating several Scottish, Australian and Canadian prisoners, was sentenced to nine years. Junji Mano drew a six-year term when convicted of beating several English servicemen.

Super-Administration Directs Vital Moves

Reveal Balkan Scene Dominated By Moscow

L. S. Chakales, chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Athens and writer of the following dispatch, recently completed a tour of northern Greece, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia accompanying the United Nations commission on Balkan frontier troubles.—Editor.

By L. S. Chakales

ATHENS, April 15 (AP)—Confidential Allied reports assert that a super-administration of the Balkan decision territorial questions, super-vices military operations across the Greek border and directs political thought in Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania.

THEY DECLARE this organization is composed of Moscow-trained men and women, receives orders from Moscow and uses the Balkan states to execute agreements reached at meetings in Prague, in October, 1945, February, 1946, and April 1946.

Georgi Dimitroff, 65-year-old Communist hero of the 1933 Reichstag fire trial and now premier of Bulgaria, is said to be head of this super-state directorate, which is reported also to include Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, Anna Pauker of Romania and Nicholas Zachariades, secretary-general of the Greek Communist party.

The Allied reports give this account:

DIMITROFF, secretary-general of the third international until Generalissimo Stalin dissolved it during the war, and Anna Pauker, 51-year-old Communist party whip in the Romanian national assembly, attended all three Prague meetings.

Marshal Tito attended the second meeting and sent trusted lieutenants to the other two.

Zachariades attended the first and second meetings and the Greek Communists were represented at the third by "General Markos" Viliades, "commander-in-chief" of the insurgent left wing Greek guerrilla forces.

THE MEETINGS, on order from the Moscow politburo to "straighten out your problems," made the following allocations of territory:

Yugoslavia is to acquire all Greek Macedonia and the Macedonia area in southwestern Bulgaria. In return Bulgaria eventually is to receive all Thrace up to the Dardanelles (which would include Turkey in Europe.)

A declaration of an autonomous Macedonia was scheduled for this spring, with the provisional government thereof petitioning for attachment of the federative peoples' republics of Yugoslavia.

However, creation of a United Nations Balkan commission and the United States program of aid to Greece threw this program off schedule.

The entire program, according to the source, is being revised.

Pat Sullivan
Living On Farm

TORONTO, April 15 — (CP)—The Globe and Mail said today in a copyrighted dispatch from Lake Simcoe, Ont., that J. A. (Pat) Sullivan, who resigned March 14 as president of the Canadian Seamen's Union on the grounds that the organization was Communist-dominated, is living on his new farm in the Gattineau hills.

THE DISCLOSURE of Sullivan's whereabouts followed varied reports of his current occupation. He was quoted by the Globe as saying he was in "temporary retirement—communing with nature" and that he planned to return to labor organization work next fall.

"There is always room for a good organizer, and I think I can say I'm a good one," said Sullivan, who vanished after issuing his retirement statement in Ottawa, which was followed by announcement of his resignation as secretary-treasurer of the Trades and Labor Congress.

Another fatal accident occurred Saturday, resulting in the death of Kenneth Dale Lentz, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Lentz. The accident occurred on their farm north of town. The child was sitting beside his father on the seat of a wagon loaded with grain, in passing through a gate one wheel went into a deep rut throwing both father and child to the ground.

Edmonton's Street Dirt

Last year the Edmonton city council very wisely passed a by-law prohibiting merchants and others on downtown streets from sweeping their sidewalks after the hour of 8:30 in the morning.

This by-law is honored, as the saying goes, in the breach rather than in the observance. At almost any hour of the day passersby are likely to be smothered in clouds of dust rising from the industrious brooms of zealous businessmen or their caretakers striving to prevent the loose dirt from being tracked into their premises.

One cannot blame the proprietors of these business places too much. The cost each year, both to housewives and the businessman, must run into hundreds of dollars from the filthy condition of the streets. And this condition will prevail until both highways and lanes are extensively and adequately paved.

Nevertheless, the law with regard to sidewalk sweeping should be enforced for three excellent reasons; first, because it is a law and should be respected; secondly, because it is highly inconvenient to pedestrians; and, thirdly, because this sidewalk sweeping business does absolutely no good in that it merely stirs up the dirt and does not dispose of it.

In many other cities, merchants and others have cultivated the practice of hosing their sidewalks one or more times a day. This application of swiftly running water washes the dust and dirt into the gutter where it belongs. It does not raise a cloud of filth to clog the nostrils of pedestrians.

It might not be inappropriate to suggest that the by-law with regard to sidewalk sweeping be rigidly enforced and that the owners of business premises be urged to clean their sidewalks as often as they like with running water. This would inconvenience nobody and would lay some of Edmonton's ever-present dust.

What It Costs to Live

Canadians who are inclined to grumble at the rising cost of living in their country ought to take to heart some figures released by the International Labor Office at Geneva.

These show that from 1937 to 1946 the cost of living in Canada grew by a mere 26 per cent. The percentages in the other eleven countries where the cost of living was surveyed are: United Kingdom, 32 per cent; South Africa, 38; United States, 48; Sweden, 50; Norway, 65; the Netherlands, 82; Brazil, 125; Mexico, 300; Italy, 1,900; Japan, 4,000 per cent and Hungary—here take a firm grasp of something—235,795,000,000 per cent up to last May, when the Office abandoned further effort to keep track of the fluctuating currency. The Hungarian situation was a consequence of a spectacular inflation.

Another set of figures compares the rising and falling of real wages, which are defined as purchasing power rather than amounts of cash. These in four countries had fallen from the level of 1937—Czechoslovakia to 99 per cent, Ireland to 86, France to 84, and Japan to 24. In the same period real wages rose in Chile by 62 per cent, in Palestine, 61; the United Kingdom 44, the United States, 30; Denmark, 11; Canada, 10, and Australia, 7 per cent.

The conclusion must not be rushed to that Canada is trailing behind in wages, for it will be seen that money wages and "real" wages have little bearing on each other. The actual rise in Canadian money wages was 27 per cent. But it can be shown that where the fall in real wages was the greatest—the rise in money wages was the most—in France to 550 and in Japan to 900 per cent.

Canada Has Tried It

Hon. Paul Martin scored a point at Winnipeg when he said Canada is qualified to make a worthwhile contribution to the discussion of how Germany is to be governed.

The Big Four foreign ministers are agreed that some sort of a federal system for that country will have to be incorporated in the treaty of peace. They differ widely as to how far the governing powers should be centralized or distributed, but are in agreement that there must be provincial or state legislatures and administrations and also a national parliament and government.

Canada has been under that kind of a governmental set-up for eighty years. And there is no thought anywhere of abandoning it for some other pattern. There have been, and still are, disputes about where the boundary line does or should lie between the provincial and the federal authorities. But there is no suggestion that it would be advisable to pull down the federalized structure and build one of some other type.

able to pull down the federalized structure and build one of some other type.

This should signify something to the Big Four governments, and to the whole body of the United Nations. This Dominion would in any event be entitled to present its views on the proposed treaty fully, and to have these considered with sympathetic attention. But since it has grown to nationhood under the very kind of government that it is proposed to set up in Germany, its advice should be valuable when the treaty is being drawn.

The constitution of Canada and that of the United States differ in that the states of the Union are sovereign entities while the provinces of the Dominion are not. The constitution of Germany will have to be patterned on one or the other. To leave either out of account while fashioning the governing plan for that country would be to ignore the testimony of experience. Both plans work satisfactorily on this continent. The question is, which would be most acceptable to the people of Germany, for no plan that is not acceptable to them can work well.

Home Henry

Mr. Henry Wallace went to England to denounce the foreign policy of the United States. His immediate object being to alienate British support from Mr. Truman's proposal to bolster Greece and Turkey against encroachment by Russia and its satellites.

The result is about what anyone else would have expected it to be. Mr. Wallace drew large audiences, of curious and courteous people, and those who still think peace can be kept by appeasement. But his mission is a flat failure, as it was bound to be. The British live too near the trouble zone to be isolationists, and they paid a terrible penalty for Mr. Chamberlain's notion that Hitler could be bribed to stop grabbing.

If Mr. Churchill were to come to the United States to wage a campaign against the foreign policy of Mr. Bevin, he would be listened to but soon or later told to go home and do his talking where the policy was made. That is what the London papers are now saying to Mr. Wallace, in polite but plain enough language.

A feature of Ottawa's cultural life which has just closed its first season has been a series of children's concerts organized by a Mr. Kash. But for the cultural aspect they would, no doubt, have been known as Kash's Kiddies' Konzerts.

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENTS

That Other Moscow

BY ELMORE PHILPOTT

Near Moscow, Idaho.—The late Will Rogers used to say, "All I know is what I read in the papers." It's a horrible confession for an old newspaperman to make. But if you only know what is in the papers, in these strange times, you do not know everything.

Like many other Canadians, I am concerned by the flood of war talk that pours across the border—mostly by radio. So I said to myself—why not take a trip to some part of the U.S.A. where I can find out for myself what the ordinary American is thinking?

IDAHO USED TO BE the heart of the isolated country. The "old lion," the late Senator Borah, represented this state for what seemed a lifetime. Surely, I figured, that would be a good place to make a one-man quiz. It is, believe me.

We figured we might make it in one day—if we drove like blazes. We toyed with the idea of going straight to Moscow, Idaho. For surely, I said to my wife, the place to find what the typical American is thinking about war with Moscow, Russia, is in Moscow, Idaho.

WE DIDN'T GET to Moscow, Idaho, on this trip. We didn't even get as close as the Germans got to Moscow, Russia, in 1941.

But we did get to Idaho. And we did get to talk to one man from Moscow—Moscow, Idaho, not Moscow, Russia.

IF ANYBODY tries to tell you that the people of the U.S.A. have gone suddenly nuts—and actually want another war—don't you believe it.

Here in Idaho you might just as well talk about a war with Mars as a war between the citizens of Moscow, Idaho, and Moscow, Russia.

Of course they have heard talk of that "next war," just as they have read the comic strips about war with Mars. But they both seem equally unreal to the people hereabouts—if the few I talked with are a good sample.

This is just a flash impression. But I would bet a hundred to one that the typical citizen of Idaho is at heart the same kind of isolationist that he was in the days of Borah. By that I mean that the overwhelming interests of the people is centred right at home.

They do not know as much as some others do about foreign countries—and what they do know doesn't endear those foreign countries to them.

They do know that the changed facts of life have made it impossible for them ever again to apply the old kind of isolationist policy that won out in the twenties. But for all that I am convinced that a modified kind of isolationism is the main factor in the thinking of the U.S. common person.

One reason why the substantial majority are obviously willing to "go along" with the Truman doctrine on Greece and Turkey is because it has been presented to them as something the United States should do to stabilize the world—and which the United States can do on its own hook without a long wrangle and fuss. But heaven help the leaders of the American people if it turns out that the move into Greece and Turkey was not what it was painted.

Doctrine Without Policy

BY DOROTHY THOMPSON

The "Truman doctrine" is encountered opposition in Great Britain, and there are great reservations about it in the United States. There is also a more immediate danger than that it will lead the United States into war. It might, instead, lead into bankruptcy.

If the United States gives European governments the impression that it is ready to advance loans to "check Communism," it is opening itself to blackmail. Every European government will be at its door for aid against the Communist menace. The greediest forces will be encouraged; Europe will look to the United States, instead of itself, for salvation; and one day the United States shall be broke. That will be communism's hour.

The greatest barrier against the spread of Communism, the instrument of Russia's Asiatic imperialism, is a prosperous, solvent America.

The quickest way to Communism is American bankruptcy after a failure of dollar diplomacy—more dollar than diplomacy; that, plus war hysteria.

NEITHER GREECE nor any European nation can be rehabilitated by loans. The sickness of Europe is too profound. That sickness is nationalism, which divides Europe into 50 or more sovereign states. Such a Europe, situated between the great complex of the multinational Soviet state and the continentally integrated United States, is doomed, and all the gold in the mountains of Kentucky cannot save it.

Anything done to bolster those nationalisms, and their petty politicians, is wasted.

Only Europe can be saved—Europe as a whole. The condition for salvation is the economic union of all Europe.

Belgium and the Netherlands are creating such a union, and it is that principle which the United States should support, and make the condition of loans.

The argument for a federalized Germany is realistically unsupportable except as a measure toward a federalized Europe. Failing of integration with the rest of Europe, Germany—as the border state of the Soviet—will, whether dismembered or united, gravitate in that direction. Then, eventually, we shall have Eurasian federation with its capital in Moscow.

ONLY SOVIET mistakes—the violence and treachery of the Communists, the plunder of the Russian armies, and Soviet lack of appreciation of the European tradition—have prevented that consummation from happening already.

Policy is purpose, purpose created by recognition of essentials. It is no policy to move from crisis to crisis, in repeated astonishment that wicked men should take advantage of the situation we ourselves contribute to create, or fail to acknowledge and implement. Policy gets at the root of a trouble. No tree that is dying can be saved by treating it branch by branch.

The great European tree is dying—and if Europeans care more for their nationalisms than they do for their lives, we cannot save them with all the money in the world. But if they recognize the necessity of their European existence, the United States could contribute powerfully to European redemption.

Wheat Parley Hazards

BY FRANK B. WALKER

LONDON: The pessimism which enveloped the early sessions of the international wheat conference has increased rather than diminished. Once again it has been shown how wide is the gap between principle and practice.

The decision of Argentina to remain outside any agreement for the present, at any rate, has made the problems of the conference even more difficult than they were before, if, in fact, it has not made any such agreement valueless.

DESPITE the confidence of Rt. Hon. John Strachey in bulk buying and commodity agreements, Britain is by no means unanimous on this question and opponents of both methods of international trading have stated their case with vigor in the past few weeks. Their views are summed up by The Times in a leading editorial attack on three main grounds:

First, that the proposed agreement "emphasizes stability at the cost of efficiency," second that it aims at a degree of stability which cannot be attained under the present circumstances; and third that it plans to link "inappropriately as objectives stabilization and relief."

Furthermore, The Times questions the position of Britain under the proposals. It suggests that the policy of two prices—one for the normal, home and export markets and one covering surplus sales to nations whose standards of living are low—would mean that importers, Britain among them, would in fact be paying the piper.

THE ECONOMIST has also challenged the results of the special sales below an agreed world price. "Assuredly these special sales will not operate to keep up the price of normal commercial exports has clearly been received with an outside pinch of salt."

Paul de Hevesy, who himself once served on the wheat council, points out the major difficulty: "The free price system fulfills the momentous task which many people and several governments do not appear to take into consideration: the function of inducing farmers to produce more in times of scarcity—consequent upon an increase of price—and that of inducing the public and industry to consume more in times of plenty—consequent upon a decrease in the price. It is true that in the most prosperous American and European countries the price of bread does not influence its consumption to any appreciable extent; but in all the poorer countries it certainly does."

Mr. de Hevesy continued: "Thus the departure from the free price system results in the consumer having to pay high price without the farmer being induced to end the world scarcity by expanding the world acreage. Future prospects—and this is the crux of the matter—are in this way jeopardized."

BRIEFLY, British opposition is based on the fear that it will restrict, rather than increase, production, that it will set up an artificial structure under which neither supply nor demand will effectively react, and that in the long run importers will suffer by being forced to pay a price which includes a hidden levy to meet the cost of cheap sales to distressed areas.

Phrase of the Week

Winnipeg Free Press

The prize for the best phrase of the week in the United Kingdom has been awarded by the British Press to Mr. H. G. Strauss, Conservative member for the combined English universities. Mr. Strauss was speaking of the latest move of the Attlee government in the present economic crisis which is to appoint a super-planner to co-ordinate all plans. He said: "Meanwhile it has been decided to throw another planner into the works."

The Older Veteran

BY HARPER PROWSE, MLA

This week the Department of Veterans Affairs is beginning a campaign to sell the "older veteran" to the employers of the Dominion. This has been one of their most difficult tasks—to find ways and means of rehabilitating those men, veterans of two wars, who are now in their 50's. Too young to qualify for War Veterans Allowance, too young actually to be "put on the shelf," these men are too old to compete successfully against younger men on the ordinary labor market.

Today the accent is on youth. Employers want young men, the younger the better, to fill the jobs which are open. Yet there are a great many jobs which can be filled just as satisfactorily, and some more satisfactorily, by older men. Then too, there are the "blind alley" jobs, which offer no prospects for either promotion or betterment, which are actually undesirable from the younger man's point of view. These are jobs which should properly be filled by older men, and would be, if it were not for the fact that so many employers have adopted a rigid policy of hiring only younger men.

In spite of the rather large number of persons listed as out of employment by the National Selective Service, Canada faces a serious shortage of man-power today and we cannot afford to place able men "on the shelf."

CITIZENS' committees and other interested organizations are being asked to co-operate with DVA and the Department of Labor in surveying the employment opportunities available for older veterans, especially the dual servicemen who have seen service in both wars. The aim of this campaign is to find approximately 10,000 jobs across Canada. This should not be too difficult a task.

provided employers take a sympathetic and understanding view of the problem.

This is more than a problem of rehabilitating these men. It is a national problem, for unless a solution is discovered and put into effect these men are going to become charges of the state treasury, and this, of course, is going to cost the taxpayers money. It is inconceivable that in a young, growing country like this we should be unable to find a useful place in our economy for these older veterans.

Employers will be doing themselves and Canada a favor if they will review conditions in their plants and businesses with a view to deciding what jobs they have which could best be filled by these older men. It is hardly necessary to suggest the type of work for which they are best fitted because each employer will know which jobs in his business can be filled to advantage by older men.

IF WE ARE to get the production we require in order to permit our people to hope for a higher standard of living we must make use of all our available supplies of manpower in the most efficient manner. This means, among other things, that men must be placed in jobs where their abilities will be given the largest possible scope.

At the same time it is just as important that as many people as possible should be gainfully employed that they may have the money required to purchase the goods we produce. This is necessary to insure the distribution of our goods, to insure markets for our production, and to prevent too heavy a tax load on those who are working, making it impossible for us to attain the standard of living our productive capacity should make possible.

The Bulletin's Readers Say:

OUR WAY OF LIFE

Editor, Bulletin—I picked up your editorial page of March 3rd today, and read the article, Our Way of Life, by Harper Prowse. I found it interesting, if true, and disappointing for certain.

He admits he had been using the term, loosely, until jumped by a friend who asked what he meant. He admits he found it hard to explain, and then he goes on to give a very definite explanation of Our Way of Life.

Among our Rights, he includes the right of the poor man to be proud of his poverty, and the right of the rich man to enjoy wealth, and the advantages it brings.

I disagree 100 per cent with that, because social injustices, (special privilege) may be imposed, or conferred, by legislation.

Referring to our responsibilities, he maintains that a man should be willing to offer his life to safeguard our liberties and our heritage. Before I could accept such a responsibility, and due to my own observations of Our Way of Life, I would want to know, first, whose way of life, second, whose liberties, and third, what heritage.

I am glad Mr. Prowse has reminded us that our history is included. Let us take a look at our history. During the past 35 years, we have had two world wars and about 15 years of depression, and both were profitable to the powers that plot our way of life. During this period we have witnessed the birth of those twin atrocities, old age pensions, and pensions for the blind, which until a couple of years ago was $20 a month. The pension is now $25; not very much to be sure, but it is a way of life, imposed by legislation, and a symbol of

Nonentity

Ottawa Citizen

Sir Waldron Smithers, Conservative member of the United Kingdom House of Commons, who has been featured in the press of the Dominion as accusing Canada of trying to get the highest price for her wheat, is so influential a back-bencher that the moment he rises to speak in Parliament there is a stampede for the exits. This fact should restore a sense of proportion to the news about him.

legislated poverty and shame.

The prime responsibility for these atrocities rests with the man who stated so feeling in London some years ago that the war was being waged in order, among other things, that the old folks at home could rest undisturbed in the tranquility of their twilight.

Our way of life is especially interesting for ex-service personnel. The vast majority of them are still under 30 so it will be seen that their way of life embraces ten years of the severest depression the world has known and six years of war.

One is reminded of the slogan of the ninth Victory Loan, "Invest in Their Future." What an investment! What a future!

Theatre Seeking Financial Help

The Edmonton Community theatre is staging a week's drive to get support of citizens to send the Edmonton group, winners of the Alberta Drama festival, to London, Ontario, for the Dominion competition.

Miss Margery Mackenzie, president, in asking for financial aid said that it will cost approximately $1,000 to send the seven members of the cast, five of whom are ex-servicemen, and their director, Miss Eva Howard, of the play "My Heart in the Highlands," to London, Ont., for the competition.

Report Science Conquers Goitre

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., April 15.—(AP)—Conquest of one more common disease of man, hyperthyroidism or toxic goitre, by chemicals that replace the body's natural controls was announced here Sunday in an American Chemical Society release.

THE DISEASE is not cured in the ordinary sense, but about half the patients get well because their own bodies finish the job that the new drugs begin. The other patients improve enough to remove the dangers in the surgery that until recently was the only effective treatment.

GMC Employees Get Wage Boost

DETROIT, April 15.—(AP)—Announcement of an agreement between General Motors Corporation and the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (CIO) providing for a 15-cent hourly increase for more than 30,000 employees was made yesterday in a joint statement by corporation and union.

THE AGREEMENT is effective today. Under its terms all wage rates and classifications of hourly-rated employees represented by the union will be increased by 15 cents per hour.

The remainder of the 15 cents will be used to cover the cost of six paid holidays and other economic items.

Meanwhile the Ford Motor Company was threatened with a strike of supervisory employees by mid-May as the Independent Foreman's Association of America executive board approved filing of a 30-day strike notice Sunday.

Chrysler Corporation was the target of a similar notice Saturday after union officials reported no progress in negotiations covering its 75,000 workers.

Announce Details New TCA Service

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., April 15.—(CP)—E. W. Stull of Lethbridge, operations manager of Trans-Canada Airlines, western region, yesterday outlined details of the new air service which will link Lethbridge with important centres in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba by July 1st.

FULL MAIL, passenger and express service will be provided, he said, adding that Douglas DC-3's will be used on one daily flight each way linking Lethbridge with Medicine Hat, Swift Current, Regina, Brandon and Winnipeg.

The new service will be started at the time the company begins use of its new four-motored DC-4's on the main airline. The larger machines will not stop at Regina and the new daily service with two-engine planes is designed to give adequate service to Regina and other prairie cities.

While inauguration of the new air link will see only one flight each way daily, further expansion is considered likely.

Would Aid Vets Who Bought Homes

OTTAWA, April 15.—(CP)—Park Manross (C-Canada) urged yesterday in the Commons that the government assist veterans to obtain occupancy of houses which they have purchased since their return from overseas. Mr. Manross said the government could order that houses purchased by veterans up to a certain date be turned over to the owners within a short period of time.

To Attend Parley

W. C. Bruce, a past-president of the Edmonton Rotary club, will attend the district conference to be held in Winnipeg in the Royal Alexandra hotel, April 20 to 22, when the Winnipeg club will be host to delegates from 38 Rotary clubs.

"Rotary's Place in the World Today" will be the speech by Bill Bruce.

The Book of Knowledge

How the Earth's Crust was Formed

This and the following articles are taken from the Book of Knowledge and can be clipped for saving in a reference book.

In an earlier article, we told you that the earth is divided into several layers. The uppermost layer is the atmosphere, or air sphere. Below that is the hydrosphere, or water sphere which has collected in the low places on the earth's solid surface. This solid portion of the earth is the lithosphere (rock sphere), which is also divided into layers—light weight rocks near the surface and heavier rocks farther down.

No one knows what the earth was like while it was forming and immediately afterward, but according to most theories, it is jagged, or smooth and rounded lava flows rising above the irregular floor of the sea. Great volcanoes probably spouted forth, the seas were hot, and no life existed anywhere on earth.

As the earth cooled, the lighter-weight elements and their compounds became separated from the heavier materials. Hence, the rocks which formed at the surface were of a different composition from the rocks lower down.

Probably the greatest variation in composition occurred near the surface in what is usually called the earth's crust.

The crust grew thicker as it continued to cool. The crust now is considered to be about 40 miles thick. No one knows what the lithosphere is like below that depth. According to one theory, the inner part of the lithosphere may be basaltic rock that is so hot it cannot be solid and at the same time so compressed that it cannot be liquid. On this inner shell the crust is supposed to float, the lightweight rocks riding high and the heavy rocks low.

How is it that the inner shell is still hot? The chief reason is that the crust, as it hardened, sealed up the hot interior, keeping most of the heat inside, just as you keep most of the heat inside a kettle of hot soup by putting a lid on. A little heat, to be sure, did leak up through the crust, but that was mostly made up by new heat created in the interior.

Some heat was created by radioactivity within the atoms of certain substances. The heavier materials kept pressing or falling downward. As they went, they rubbed against other rocks and the rubbing (friction) caused heat.

The pressure also caused a certain amount of heat.

In a later article, we shall tell you the theory of how mountain ranges were formed on the earth's crust.

Many Questions Before Air Meet

Customs fees charged Canadian commercial air line operators entering the U.S.A., regulations governing the operation of helicopters, provision of crash equipment at certain airports, and many other matters pertaining to civil aviation were discussed by delegates attending the conference of the Air Industries and Transport Association of Canada in the Macdonald hotel Monday.

C. H. "PUNCH" Dickens, assistant manager and director of the de-Havilland Aircraft Corp. of Canada Ltd., presided over the sessions.

Five McKee trophy winners were among the 40 or so delegates. These five distinguished aviators are Mr. Dickens, A. M. "Matt" Berry, T. M. "Pat" Reid, W. R. "Wop" May, and Walter E. Gilbert.

May, Gilbert, Dickens and Berry are all well-known in the west for their feats as pioneer bushland pilots in the far north in pre-war years.

AN ADDRESS by Air Vice-Marshal Alan Ferrier, MC, member of the Canadian Air Transport Board, featured the session Monday morning.

He explained the policy of the board at length and answered many questions.

Ottawa will be asked to try and work out an arrangement with the United States on customs fees. It was pointed out that aircraft coming into Canada have a free customs service but when Canadian operators cross to the U.S. they are assessed various fees on aircraft.

A peculiar situation was revealed in regard to helicopters. These quaint machines are actually violating all regulations in existence for conventional types of aircraft and aviation authorities are puzzled as to what to do.

A SEPARATE set of regulations covering helicopters will be sought by members of the association.

A meeting of the board of directors of the organization will conclude the conference Tuesday morning.

Announce Dates Of Army Camps

CALGARY, April 15.—(CP)—Dates of camps for local and district units of the reserve army during the coming summer were released today from H.Q. of western (army) command. They are as follows:

13th field company, Royal Canadian engineers, Chilliwack, June 30 to July 12.

68th L.A.A. regiment, RCA, Esquimalt, July 27 to August 10.

CALGARY Highlanders, South Alberta Regiment, Calgary Tanks (King's Own Calgary Regiment), 18th field regiment, RCA, 41st anti-tank regiment, RCA, 2nd corps troops 33rd corps troop company, 35th general transport company, 32nd corps troops company, 8th field ambulance, 17th field dressing station (Ponoka), and local signals units, all at Wainwright, July 27 to August 9.

Extend Provision Vets' Land Act

OTTAWA, April 15 (CP)—Veterans Minister Mackenzie tabled in the Commons yesterday an order-in-council broadening the Veterans Land Act as it applies to groups of veterans working together. It allows grants up to $1,200 to be made to any veteran in a group of not more than 10 "who propose conducting joint operations in farming or forestry, for the purchase of machinery essential to farming or forestry."

The move is aimed at aiding groups of veterans "in the development and operation of provincial lands made available under agreements between Dominion and provincial government."

Kaiser "Despised" Hitler's Regime

FRANKFURT-ON-ODER, Russian-occupied Brandenburg, April 15.—(AP)—Hermine, widow of Germany's last Kaiser, William II, told visiting American correspondents yesterday that the Kaiser "despised and distrusted" Adolf Hitler even during the height of the Nazi leader's Western Front successes in 1940. She was interviewed in a six-room apartment which she occupies here with seven other persons. They include her grandson, 21-year-old Franz Friedrich Prince of Prussia, a secretary, a chauffeur and his family and a Russian woman who serves as an interpreter and guardian.

There are about 1,000,000 square miles of lake and river surface on the earth.

New Soapless VEL Is New Modern Cleaner

by Frances Thompson noted homemaking authority

Soapless VEL has changed my ideas of washing clothes and doing dishes. This modern discovery has shown me for all time that heavy suds, such as soap products produce, are not necessary for cleaning.

The light fluffy suds you get with VEL are somewhat like a frothy drink or an ice-cream soda—the goodness is beneath the froth and bubble—and lasts long after the suds subside. You don't need last-suds with VEL. I've found that the clear solution left after VEL suds cleaning power. And it acts just as soft as rain water. That's why VEL is so easy on the hands and so beneficial in the bathtub.

VEL FOR DISHWASHING
A teaspoonful or two of soapless VEL in dishpan or sink (nothing else, please!) is all that is required to speed up dishwashing. No need to add soap or any other cleaner to your VEL solution. Soapless VEL alone cuts grease quickly and leaves no emuls on glass or china, nor scarcely any suds around the sink. For hard-to-clean pots and pans and for egg-stained spoons and plates, VEL's cleansing action is really amazing.

VEL FOR HOUSEHOLD CLEANING
A tablespoonful of soapless VEL in a pail of warm water quickly removes grease and dirt from painted surfaces, walls, windows, mirrors and tiles. No rubbing, rinsing or drying is necessary. Just wring out the cloth and wipe off the dirt.

game at my own club, the New York Athletic Club. My partner was Benjamin O. Johnson of Spartanburg, S. C., who had come up to New York to participate in the Vanderbilt Cup and Masters Individual Tournaments. He played a beautiful game and we came out on top in the Athletic Club duplicate.

Johnson, who was married recently, said he just could not pass the four queens in his hand over my four-heart bid.

When the opening spade lead held, West shifted to the eight of clubs, and Johnson did not make the mistake of letting it ride around to his queen. He went up with dummy's ace and trumped the six of spades with the heart deuce.

Noting with pleasure the drop of the jack of spades, he next led a small trump to dummy's ace and ruffed the seven of spades in his own hand, dropping West's ace and establishing the ten and nine of spades in dummy.

Now Johnson picked up the trumps, cashed the queen of diamonds, led the three of diamonds to dummy's ace, then discarded one of his clubs on the diamond king and the other two on the ten and nine of spades.

DICK TRACY

YOU'RE RIGHT, DEAR. IT IS WATER, WITH A PINK TINGE.

YOU GO RIGHT UPSTAIRS AND—

OH-OH-H!

GIVE ME A HAND, BUDD. PUT A TOURNIQUET ON THIS ARM.

HUH?

SAV, YOU NEED A DOCTOR? AND THIS LOOKS LIKE A CASE FOR THE POLICE.

IF I WERE YOU, I'D STICK TO FIRST AID. YOU'LL LIVE LONGER.

MOON MULLINS

LADY PLUSHBOTTOM, I WANT TO APOLOGIZE FOR SLAPPING YOUR FACE.

FORGET IT, MRS. PINKY. LET US LET BYGONES BE BYGONES.

GEE! WHY DIDN'T YOU SMACK ME BACK, DEARIE?

OH, THEN IT WOULD BE JUST BEEN YOUR TURN AGAIN.

LOOK AT KAY AND YOUR LITTLE FELLOW, FRIENDLY AND PLAYING MARBLES TOGETHER.

ME AND PERCY HAD A FIGHT AND I'M HELPIN' HIM HUNT HIS TEETH.

WE AIN'T PLAYIN' MARBLES.

SUPERMAN

YOU CAN'T USE ME AS A PAWN TO ORDER MY DAD AROUND—I WON'T LET YOU.

SHUT YOUR YAP!

KEEP LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY UNDER GUARD IN THE NEXT ROOM, NICKY.

IF HE MAKES A FALSE MOVE, I'LL BUST 'IM ONE.

I MUST TRACE A CALL MADE TO COUNCILMAN GLADSTONE'S OFFICE. IT'S URGENT.

IT'S AGAINST REGULATIONS—BUT—SEEMINGLY AS IT'S SUPERMAN...

DOTTIE

SAV TARTY WHERE'D YOU GET THE CUTE SUN SUIT?

MOTHER MADE IT OVER FROM HER OLD SPORT DRESS!

MAKING THINGS OVER IS A GOOD IDEA, DOTTIE!

NOW WHAT CAN I DO WITH THIS OLD SPORT JACKET OF YOURS? IT'S SO LOUD!!

I KNOW, I'LL MAKE PEPPER A COAT AND BLANKET FROM IT.

NOW, DON'T BE SO UPSET. I DIDN'T DO IT!

GR-R-#!!!

GAS ALLEY

WELL, SARGE, HULDA CAUGHT THE BRIDAL BOUQUET!

YEAH, SHE'S THE NEXT ONE TO GET MARRIED—SHE THINKS!

SHE HAD TO STRAIGHT-ARM JUDY TO GET IT.

NO WONDER! JUDY'S GOT 10 YEARS TO GO, AN' HULDA WASN'T TAKIN' ANY CHANCES.

IT ALL WENT OFF SWELL—NOBODY BUSTIN' IN AT THE LAST MINUTE WITH AN OBJECTION.

AIN'T IT FUNNY HOW THE GALS GET MARRVIN' FEVER AT A WEDDIN' NO MAN EVER CAUGHT IT THERE, HACK!

ARCHIE

GOOD GRIEF! WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU?

JUGHEAD AND HIS DARN BIKE IN ORDER TO MISS HIM A TRUCK PULLED OVER AND SPLASHED ME.

YEAH, I SHOULD HAVE LET HIM HIT ME. GET IT HIMSELF. CLEANER ARE HARD IN TIME TO GET FOR MY FISH-UPPER JOBS.

LET'S GO IN THE SCHOOL. THERE'S CLEANER AND AN IRON IN THE SEWING ROOM. I'LL CLEAN IT!

BETTY I COULD KISS YOU!

BUT COME ON—WE HAVEN'T MUCH TIME!

RIP! YOU'RE BACK! OUT FRONT!

MORAY'S CARD GAME WITH GAYLORD LASTED ALL NIGHT. HE RETURNED TO HIS HOTEL AT SIX A.M. HIS JAUNTY ATTITUDE CONVINCED ME HE HAD WON.

I ASSUMED THAT GAYLORD HAD PAID MORAY BY CHECK, AND THAT MORAY WAS TOO SMART TO LET GAYLORD STOP PAYMENT ON IT. KNOWING THAT MORAY WOULD HAVE TO ACT BEFORE THE BANK OPENED AT NINE, I WAITED IN A CAB OUTSIDE HIS HOTEL.

MORAY CAME OUT AT EIGHT AND HAILED A CAB. I FOLLOWED HIM TO GAYLORD'S APARTMENT. HE DIDN'T RING, BUT LET HIMSELF IN WITH A PASSKEY.

OF ALL THE NERVE! THEN WHAT, RIP?

SPORTS

HAROLD DEAN, Sports Editor

SO EDMONTON ISN'T GETTING a junior final after all. Of course Pickard's Sunday night statement by way of buildup for the "announcement" which was to be made Monday, didn't leave much room for doubt as to what the outcome of Edmonton's application would be.

It also is noted in last night's Regina story that CAHA's Al Pickard had seriously considered placing the fifth game in Edmonton. Even here he wasn't taking undue chances of this city getting one, if Toronto St. Mike's squad is as potent as it is claimed to be.

True enough, Saskatchewan's having the regional winner should assure that province of prior rights in the series, but then Winnipeg has been awarded one game, although possessing the poorest hockey plant in the three prairie provinces.

Inconsistent Reasoning

THE STATEMENT THAT THE MOOSE JAW and Toronto juniors didn't want to play in the Edmonton arena, the largest and finest in western Canada, doesn't seem to be much of a reason for making the decision.

But then, come to think of it, Canucks did lose two playoff games and fail to win even one of four exhibition starts during the last two seasons.

On the other hand, it's not so very long ago, that an Edmonton team didn't want to play three straight in a best-of-five series on the home ice of the other club, but the Canadians were told they just had to play in Lethbridge—or else.

The latter of course, was an AHA matter, although the situation was brought to the attention of the same Al Pickard. And the treatment recently handed out to Edmonton's New Method club, is not forgotten either.

Saskatchewan Couldn't Miss

THEREFORE, IT CANNOT BE SAID THAT Saskatchewan has not been well looked after so far as playoff games are concerned. Lethbridge Native Sons both started and finished their Moose Jaw series of either the home ice of Canucks or in Regina. Pickard's home city, only a few miles distant.

And only three games of the western final series were in Manitoba, the Brandon Elks completing the remaining five in Moose Jaw and Regina.

If the minimum guarantee (reported to be $5,000) offered by the Edmonton Exhibition Association was not considered high enough, it would have been quite in order for Pickard to publicly say so. And even if it would cost around $1,600 to move the two teams here, the chances of the CAHA losing on the transaction seem rather remote.

And Edmonton fans probably would have been willing to pay $2 for the best seats too, if that was the price demanded in the other cities.

Edmonton Fans Overlooked

THE TOTAL OF WELL OVER 13,000 paid admissions for the two Calgary-Kimberley games played here, has not been equalled by any other western city so far this season, or in any other.

Furthermore, no screams of protest were detected coming from the direction of Saskatchewan, either this season or last, when the Edmonton Exhibition Association and Calgary shelved out in an effort to keep certain Saskatchewan rink and senior club owners in a jovial mood.

All-in-all, it would appear that Edmonton fans, who turn out in larger numbers than those of any other western city, have not received the consideration to which they were entitled at the hands of CAHA officials.

And did somebody say officers of the Edmonton District Hockey Association were holding a meeting here tonight, with junior hockey for next year the major item on the agenda?

"Every Game a Thrill" Claims Eddie Shore

By Alan Randall

NEW YORK, April 15 —(CP)— "Every game was a thrill." The words come from Eddie Shore, the man they called "Mr. Hockey" in his boisterous playing hey-day with Boston Bruins when he became not only a veteran of National Hockey League play but a veteran of Stanley Cup wars such as the current Toronto-Montreal final series.

Looking back on his hockey career, Shore wouldn't change a thing. The thrills were too many, too great, to want any change.

OLD NOW IN A hockey sense, he needs little buildup to weight his words on the ice game. Wasn't he one of the greatest players to come down the pike carrying skates and a hockey stick? Isn't he now almost a legendary figure in a Big Time he has scarcely left? "For me all Stanley Cup playoffs were a great thrill," said the manager of Springfield Indians in the American Hockey League, now growing until in customer-attraction it ranks close to the NHL.

"I DON'T KNOW that any one play-off stands out in my mind as greater than others," said Shore. "They were all tremendously thrilling to me—not alone Stanley Cup play-offs but every hockey game."

"One of the biggest thrills I got out of hockey was to win the David Hart Trophy for the first time. (The trophy goes to the player considered most valuable to his team.) But an even greater thrill and pleasure was winning the trophy for the fourth time."

AND REMEMBER said Bill Stewart, the only American ever to coach a team to a Stanley Cup championship. He did it with Chicago Black Hawks in 1939 and says, "It was a great honor to me."

But like Shore, the game and the spirit was the thing for Stewart, now referee-in-chief in the American Hockey League.

"The spirit and hustle and team-play was the big factor," said Stewart.

Hamilton Advances To East Senior Final

TORONTO, April 15 —(CP)— Hamilton Tigers last night came roaring back from a two-goal deficit to rap in three goals in three minutes of the third period and win their Eastern Canada semi-final Allan Cup hockey series with Moncton Hawks in three straight by taking the last game 5-4.

The hard-hitting Bengals came to life with a bang in the last half of the final period after two frames in which the eastern team outplayed them. Tigers now advance to the eastern finals against either Sherbrooke St. Francis or Montreal Royals.

FOR A TIME in the early periods the 4,000 fans watched the free-skating Hawks go right in on goalie Art Childs only to have their chances offset by erratic shooting.

Led by Clarence Shillington who performed the hat trick for the second time in the series, Hamilton kept even with Moncton through two periods before springing to their big attack.

The Tigers were the first to count, jumping into the lead in the second period on a goal by Shillington. Four minutes later Moncton came back with Leadbeater taking a Demchuk pass to tie it up.

HAMILTON AGAIN went ahead at 15:05 when Sherry took a Conick pass to fire one in. But Sammy McManus tied it up on the pre-tieout effort of the night, a clean cut goal from a Fraser pass.

To the roaring fans it looked all over for Hamilton in the first few minutes of the third period when the Hawks rapped in two counts in quick succession by Whitlock and Poirier.

That was the moment when Tigers struck back. They quickly forced Moncton back into their own territory and in rapid-fire order banged in goals by Pierre Cadieux and Shillington with the payoff coming from Bill Dinning.

MONCTON—McDonald; Fraser, Poirier, Dinning, McManus, Trainer, Sub: Bastrache, Charlton, Demchuk, Leadbeater, Bell, Whitlock, Agnew.

HAMILTON—Childs; Laurent, Sperdy, Peers, Mason, Liscombe, Sub: Dinning, Shillington, Runions, Conick, A. Conick, Brady, Cadieux. Referee—Leo Murray and Sibby Mundy, Montreal.

FIRST PERIOD: Scoring—None. Penalties—Poirier.

SECOND PERIOD: 1—Hamilton, Shillington (Runions, Conick) 8:37; 2—Moncton, Leadbeater (Demchuk) 12:00; 3—Hamilton, Shillington (J. Conick, Laurent) 15:05; 4—Moncton, McManus (Fraser, Trainer) 19:20; penalty—Trainer.

THIRD PERIOD: 5—Moncton, Whitlock (Charlton) 5:43; 6—Moncton, Poirier (McManus, Trainer) 8:34; 7—Hamilton, Cadieux (Brady, Dinning) 9:45; 8—Hamilton, Shillington (J. Conick) 10:37; 9—Hamilton, Dinning (J. Conick, Sperry) 11:45.

Penalties—Runions, McManus, Peers, Poirier.

Washington Game Rained Out

Attendance Records Expected in Majors

By Jack Hand

NEW YORK, April 15 —(AP)— All opening day baseball attendance marks may go by the boards today when the 1947 major league season opens in eight cities with a total of 273,400 fans expected. Cool, cloudy weather is forecast.

Because yesterday's presidential preview at Washington was rained out, all 16 teams now are due to get away at the same time.

Brooklyn appears certain to open without a manager as president Branch Rickey revealed Joe McCarthy, former New York Yankee skipper, turned down the job.

CLYDE SUKEFORTH, named acting manager after Leo Durocher was suspended, is to supervise the Brooklyn-Boston festivities at Ebbets field where a 33,000 crowd is due to watch the unveiling of Jackie Robinson as the first negro major leaguer.

Bucky Harris returns to the big show, boxing Muddy Ruel, former assistant to Commissioner Chandler, will learn how the other half lives as manager of St. Louis Browns.

Billy Herman will try to combine playing and managing at Pittsburgh and Johnny Neun, veteran Yankee farm system manager, gets his first big time chance at Cincinnati.

THE DODGER-BRAVE game could be a real pitcher's battle between lefty Joe Hatten of the Browns and Boston's Johnny Sain, who won 20 games last season.

The world champion St. Louis Cardinals open at Cincinnati where a sellout crowd is expected to see Ewell Blackwell, lanky fireballing right-hander, try to stop Eddie Dyer's champs. Either George Munger or Murry Dickson will toil for the Birds.

Joe Cronin banks on Tex Hughson to pitch for the American League champion Boston Red Sox against Early Wynn of Washington.

CLEVELAND COUNTS on 60,000 paid to see Bobby Feller pitch the opener for the fifth successive time against Eddie Lopat, Chicago White Sox left-hander.

The Yankees bow in at the stadium in the Bronx with Spud Chandler drawing the assignment against Philadelphia's Phil Marchildon.

Hal Newhouse will be working in St. Louis when he leads Detroit Tigers against the Browns. Denny Galehouse will pitch for St. Louis.

Hank Borowy of the Cubs and Rip Sewell of the Pirates are to be opponents in Wrigley field where about 28,000 fans should watch Chicago against Pittsburgh.

New York Giants start behind Bill Voiselle at Philadelphia. Ben Chapman of the Phils has selected Schoolboy Rowe to pitch.

Winnipeg Seniors Lead Over Calgary

Flyers Again Defeat Stamps By Goal Margin

By Eddie Williams

WINNIPEG, April 15 —(CP)— Winnipeg Flyers, skating, checking and passing on equality with the powerful Calgary Stampede, edged out the 1946 Allan Cup champions 3-2 here last night to take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five series for the Western senior hockey title.

The next game — the one Stampede have to win if they are to stay in the Allan Cup race—will be played here Wednesday night. THE 5,000 ROARING fans saw the Flyers, underdogs despite their 3-1 win over Calgary Saturday night, score the game's first goal in the dying minutes of the second period and stay ahead the rest of the way as each counted twice in the final thrill-paced 20 minutes.

Jack Kernahan, Sam Fabro and Clint Albright were the Flyers' marksmen who humbled the power-packed Calgary team, victors 10-3 in the opener. Joe Fisher and Ken (Red) Hunter got the Calgary goals.

AND ALONG with the three Flyers scoring heroes, the crowd placed Don McEae, playing with his broken wrist in a cast, and goalie Ben Nicholson. The Calgary supporters found an equal niche for goalie Russ Dettell.

Calgary's widely feared checker-board passing attack had little chance to display itself as the dogged Flyers forechecked stride for stride with their opponents.

BOTH GOALS WERE so brilliant in saving at least a dozen seemingly sure shots, they made shots fired from point-blank range look easy. Even in the last minute when Calgary pulled Dettell and put on six forwards, Nicholson was invincible. He was equally effective when Flyers were short-handed for almost 10 minutes in the latter part of the first period and the early part of the second as Albright and Bob MacDonald served consecutive major penalties.

CALGARY—Dettell, Michael, Shouk, Hunter, Brownridge, Grant, Sub: Cairns, Desmarais, Fisher, Craddock, Wilder, French, Daine. WINNIPEG—Nicholson, Gray, Sykes, Raleigh, Fabro, McEae, Sub: Bell, O'Connor, Korsek, Sub: MacDonald, Telenore, Kernahan, Albright.

Officials—E. Morrison, Moose Jaw; Jimmy Creighton, Brandon. FIRST PERIOD: Scoring—None. Penalties—Shouk 3, Fabro, Bell, Albright 10 minutes.

SECOND PERIOD: 1—Winnipeg, Kernahan (McEae) 16:07. Penalties—MacDonald (major), Daine, Shouk (10-minute misconduct).

THIRD PERIOD: 2—Winnipeg, Fabro (Raleigh) 30; 3—Calgary, Fisher (Dettell) 2:57; 4—Winnipeg, Albright (Fabro, Raleigh) 9:23; 5—Calgary, Hunter (Brownridge) 13:08. Penalties—Albright, Shouk.

Tigers and Bears Take Cage Games

Tigers edged out Lions 16-15 and Bears eked out a 13-12 decision over Wolves in Monday night's doubleheader of City Girls Basketball League at McDougall gym.

Last night's was only the second loss for the leading Wolves and as a result of their wins the Bears and Tigers finish the league schedule in a deadlock for the runner-up position.

WITH FRANCES FARLEY, who scored seven points, showing the way, Tigers were up 7-4 at half time and held an 11-4 margin over Lions at the three-quarter mark.

TIGERS—R. Cross, Wessley, Woods, J. Jenkins, Dyer, Farley 7, Wasyliwsky 7, Total 16.

LIONS—Fitzsimmons 4, Koles 2, Gaudin 2, F. Cross 2, Mowrer, Total 12.

WOLVES—Williams 4, Boline 2, Bergman 1, Baker 1, Hudson 4, E. Miller, Total 12.

CAHA's Pickard Announces:

Edmonton Is Refused One of Junior Finals

REGINA, April 15 —(CP)—An Edmonton bid to have one game of the junior hockey Dominion final played in the Alberta capital has been turned down. Al Pickard, vice-president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced last night.

Fourth game of the Memorial Cup series between Moose Jaw Canucks and Toronto St. Mike's, which opens at Winnipeg tonight, will be played at Regina, April 22. The fifth will be played at Moose Jaw April 24, the sixth at Regina April 26 and further games at Regina.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED earlier that the second game would be played at Moose Jaw next Thursday and the third at Regina next Saturday.

Mr. Pickard said he had seriously considered placing the fifth game in Edmonton but had abandoned the idea "because of the heavy travelling involved which does not meet with the approval of the association or the clubs."

He also announced that officials for the series would be Ken Mullins of Montreal and Vic Lindquist of Winnipeg.

OHA HEAD PROTESTS
SPREADING OF GAMES
WINNIPEG, April 15 —(CP)—If the Memorial Cup hockey final games are to be spread between Winnipeg, Moose Jaw and Regina, a protest will be made to the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, George Panter of Gravenhurst, Ont., president of the Ontario Hockey Association, said Monday.

Mr. Panter arrived for the opening game tonight of the Dominion junior final between Moose Jaw Canucks and Toronto St. Mike's Majors.

AL PICKARD, CAHA vice-president Sunday night announced the second game of the series would be at Moose Jaw Thursday and the third game at Regina Saturday. Location of the remaining games of the best-of-seven series would be announced later, he said.

Further, the Edmonton Exhibition Association had requested that one junior dominion final game be played at Edmonton. "I've just learned of this," Mr. Panter said. "This is absurd. An itinerary like this for St. Mike's will meet with strong opposition from me." Mr. Panter said.

ONE THING that Mr. Panter was sure of, and that was the outcome of the finals. "Our job is to bring the Memorial Cup back to Toronto, and we'll do it."

Community Leagues Plan for Ball Season

The year's fastball and baseball activities were considered at a meeting of the sports representatives of Edmonton Federation of Communities held Monday night. Jimmy Cowan was chairman.

Two divisions of girls' fastball are planned, junior and intermediate, with 18 and over 18 the age limits.

BANTAM, midget, juvenile and fastball will be operated, with 15, 16 and 17 years as at May 1 next the ages for the first three divisions.

There also will be Community League baseball for juvenile and junior groups, the respective age requirements being under 18 and under 21, both as at May 1.

THE DEADLINE for entries for both boys and girls divisions was set at May 5 and the qualifying conditions for all teams are 10 signed players, together with the necessary registration fees.

Registration forms will be supplied upon request, by the Recreation office in the Civic Block. It is anticipated that all leagues will commence play on May 24.

Tub-Hunting

It pays to advertise. Just a week ago I let it be known that I would be interested in a bed nine feet square because I was getting weary of going through life with my feet sticking out one end and my head dangling grotesquely over the other.

Well, sir, at this very moment a platoon of agreeable gnomes is working as fast as their gnarled little hands will go building me such a Nile barge. Of somewhat modified dimensions, it's true, but still a healthy, out-size in which even a nocturnal gymnast like myself will be able to roam with safety.

I believe in striking while the iron is hot, whatever that means. I am now after a bathtub eight feet long and four feet deep or a reasonable facsimile. I don't care what it looks like. It can have gold-painted feet and be made of galvanized iron. It just has to be big enough for a man who does the breast-stroke.

The domestic revolution is on, Tovarich. I have gone year after patient year aunched in bathtubs, chin between bony knees, and, now, knowing that nothing is impossible, I intend to enter a new and richer life. If native ingenuity can produce the giant bed it can produce the giant bathtub. There's a great day coming, manana. The man is drunk with power.

'The Geezer'

I happen to know that huge, cavernous bathtubs actually do exist. Bathtubs big enough to take a family of six and their St. Bernard. Bathtubs big enough for a small regatta. Bathtubs in which a man may submerge, with full dignity, clear up to his nostrils. Bathtubs that might have been dreamed in the mind of Cecil B. DeMille, a man after my own heart.

These tubs are located in Merrie Olde England. They are probably the only commodities there that haven't been exported and there's a fortune in it for the man who gets the agency in these parts. I will be the first to admit that an English bathroom is the last place you'd expect to find anything praiseworthy. The English are the race who invented the Spitfire, yet somehow never got around to inventing anything that would flush.

But oh, those magnificent bathtubs! Used to be a bathtub in a canteen at Aldershot called the Dominion Club, which some of you gentlemen in the audience will remember. That bathtub had everything but a high diving board. Once seated in its depths you were a big man, indeed, if you could see over its rim and, it was once reported that a small female corporal was trapped in there and had to be brought out by rope ladder.

Some of the joy of this bathtub and hundreds like it, I encountered in England were dulled by the fact that they relied on something called "the geezer" for hot water. There may be "geezers" in this country, but not having heard any regular explosions, I doubt it.

"The geezer" is a gas heater mounted at the bow of English bathtubs. It has a complicated control panel, presumably invented by Walter Mitty, but the method of lighting is always the same. You put a match in a hole, turned a knob and ran for your life. In a moment there would be a terrifying blast, small bits of machinery would fall about you, and you knew that the "geezers" were geezing. You might notice, too, that your eyebrows were missing.

But even the risk of ending up as a charred clinker was worth taking for the reward between those porcelain cliffs.

The Decline

The decline of the bathtub in our western civilization, like that of the bed, obviously comes from the craze to congest everything in as small a space as possible.

The "modern" kitchen, for example, is one in which a housewife has everything within reach without taking a step. Yet a mere dozen years ago no respectable housewife would feel comfortable in a kitchen that wasn't big enough for a badminton game.

An ultra-modern apartment these days is about the size of a pigeon loft and an open invitation to claustrophobia.

A few years ago, as an added refinement in this trend, one company went so far as to invent and market a square bathtub and once had the misfortune to find myself wedged in one. It was a moment of dark panic. I was sure that they would have to get the fire department in and cut me out with acetylene torches. Only a super-human effort and the sacrifice of eight inches of skin saved me from this fate.

My own bathtub, a conventional model, is almost as bad and this explains why I am putting out a call to all junk yards, antique dealers or just any old eccentric who may have an old bathtub kicking around that's built for a wallflower like me.

City Resident Injured By Car

Slight injuries were suffered Monday night by Frank Adams, 1704 St. street, when he was struck by a car which, police said, was operated by Walter Moskaluk, 12029 60 street.

The accident occurred on 96 street between 102 and 103 avenues about 10:45 p.m. Moskaluk said he was going north on 96 street at the time.

Adams said the car approached him at a high rate of speed and he was crossing the street and struck him. The injured man suffered a severely bruised right leg and skinned knuckles on both hands.

Federal Minister Pays Courtesy Call

He had received only a brief courtesy call from Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction, while the federal minister was in Edmonton Monday, Premier Ernest Manning said today.

"WE DIDN'T discuss any business, he just dropped into my office for a moment," the premier said.

Asked if there had been any talk about eastern water alone conservation, or irrigation, the premier said that the department of agriculture was taking over administration of that branch of the work, and also said that he and his wife, or had not touched on the subject at all.

Neither Hon. D. B. MacMillan, minister of agriculture nor Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines had seen Mr. Howe, they said.

Plan Construction Of $200,000 Hotel

An apartment or hotel building costing approximately $200,000 will be built on property on the north side of Jasper Avenue, between 107 and 108 streets, under the terms of a sale of property ratified Monday night by city council.

THE PURCHASER of the property was A. Matheson and Co., Edmonton real estate firm, acting on behalf of an undisclosed client. The purchase price of the property was $34,000, and council approved a down payment of $8,500, and the balance spread over five equal annual payments, with interest at five per cent.

The commissioners reported to council that shortage of building materials prevented a start of building operations this year, but gave assurance that next year a substantial first-class hotel or apartment block would be erected on the property. It is proposed to have stores on the ground level of the proposed structure.

COUNCIL AGREED also to give the Matheson Company first refusal of a lot adjoining those purchased.

Twelve-Hour Chase Results In Airman's Final Capture

An airman, about as elusive as the proverbial eel, kept RCAF and city police on their toes Monday night and provided much mystery until the time he was apprehended about 11 a.m. Tuesday.

ABOUT 10:45 p.m. Monday city police received a call from the RCAF that AC2 R. M. Dunn, wanted for theft, had escaped their car. City police notified all men on the beats.

When the airman made his getaway from the airbase he was driving a 1946 model auto bearing license number, 34-576, which he claimed to be his own.

About 2 a.m. Tuesday Constable W. A. Maloney, spotted the auto at 104 street and Jasper Avenue and signalled it to stop. Instead of stopping the driver speeded up. The constable immediately climbed a passing taxi and gave chase. At times the fleeing auto reached speeds of 60 to 70 miles per hour the constable said.

Crossing the High Level Bridge the auto reached a speed of 70 miles per hour the constable added. Finally the taxi dropped behind and lost sight of the auto in front.

Constable Maloney said this auto was carrying license number 69-034. He further stated that he believed the driver to be the wanted airman.

ABOUT 8 a.m. Tuesday an abandoned car was found near the Calgary Trail in South Edmonton. The description given answered that of the missing airman's auto. Then to complicate matters further Dunn was spotted by RCAF police entering St. Joseph's hospital. About 8:30 a.m. city police and

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Plan Special Meeting Parking Meter Plan

Decided to hold a special meeting of city council to decide on a proposal of city commissioners that parking meters be installed in the city, and also to confirm proposed changes in the layout of the civic centre.

Referred to the bylaws committee a resolution by Ald. Fred J. Mitchell regarding land sales policy on city-owned property following its being serviced by sewer and water facilities.

Concurred in the recommendation of the finance committee that a grant of $300 be made to the YWCA towards the expenses of Miss Margaret Clark as a delegate to the World Conference of Christian Youth to be held at Oslo, Norway, next June. Also approved payment of a similar grant to the YMCA towards expenses of Les D. Wedman, also attending the conference.

Agreed to the recommendation of the finance committee that the Pleasant View subdivision be incorporated within the city limits as from Jan. 1, 1948.

Concurred in the recommendation of the bylaws committee that priority given veterans for civic employment cease as at Dec. 31, 1947, and that thereafter preference only be given to ex-servicemen in the case of other things being equal.

Rejected a request from residents of the Westwood district for a bus service. Thomas Forrier, superintendent of the transportation system, reported that the requested service, if established, would result in an annual loss of $8,652.

Accepted the recommendation of Thomas Walker, city assessor, that a discount of one per cent for payment of taxes on the first instalment due date be allowed, and set the instalment dates for Friday, May 16; July 16; Sept. 16, and Nov. 17.

Referred to commissioners a protest from the National Trust Company Ltd., against the restriction of parking space in front of the company's office on Jasper Avenue. Commissioner D. B. Menzies said an agreement had been reached between the commission board and the company that would satisfactorily dispose of the complaint.

Work to Resume Soon at Oil Sands

Equipment needed for completion of the oil extraction pilot plant of Oil Sands Ltd., at Bitumant would start for that point just as soon as river sailings permitted shipment, Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works said Tuesday.

THERE IS ALREADY one group of men on the camp site, and more men will be going north with the boats carrying the equipment, the minister said.

Further equipment would be received from eastern manufacturers, sufficient, he hoped, that oil operations would be under way by this fall.

The province's investment of $500,000, boosted to that total by legislation approving an advance of another $100,000 at the last session of the legislature, was sharply criticized by opposition members, but the legislation received government support and was sanctioned.

Minister Returns

Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines, came back to his desk in the Administration Building Tuesday after a week-long trip to the constituency of Carleton.

Conditions in the south of the province were "fine" he said—adding in a burst of local patriotism, "It's a great country down there."

CHURCH ISSUES CALL

The Erskine United Church held a congregational meeting last night, issuing a unanimous call to the Rev. R. R. Hinchey of Carleton, to become the minister beginning July 1.

Gives Opinion at Meeting

Decontrol measures were being taken as rapidly as supplies indicated that such action was possible, though they were still being maintained on those articles most likely to create an even sharper rise in cost of living than had at present taken place.

THIS WAS PART of an explanation of the government's decontrol measures given by Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction, at a gathering of about 30 Liberals at the home of Mrs. S. Lamb, 9912, 114 street on Monday afternoon.

He indicated that there was little chance of an election before the government's term of office expired, or at the earliest, he set the date of the next Dominion election at 1949.

He did not think there was much chance that the government's slim majority in the House of Commons would lead to its earlier defeat, since that majority would only be endangered in the unlikely chance that the diverse elements of the opposition groups would be able to move together.

Turning to the groups in the opposition, Mr. Howe said that the Conservatives, "in spite of the addition of 'progressive' to their name" were still the party of the right, though he admitted they were a little more aggressive than in the past.

THE CCF were the Socialist group, he said, who wished for a continuation of controls—controls for everything, forever.

He admitted that he was confused by the Social Credit philosophy, and suggested that the people of Alberta should organize to rid themselves of these unworthy representatives.

The multiplicity of parties in the country was a tendency to be regretted he thought. The situation makes it difficult for a government to carry out any policy when the combined opposition can vote that government out of office.

He suggested that Alberta, if it could not send a Liberal to Ottawa, select the next best alternative, a Conservative, so that this country could return to the condition under which it advanced so far, a two party political system.

The minister discussed methods of organization, which he suggested Alberta Liberals might do well to follow—and laid particular importance on organization among the women of the various districts.

Howe at Luncheon

Says Civic Airport Has Best Location

"I believe Edmonton is the pioneer city in Canadian aviation, and that it has the best located airport in Canada," was the remark of the Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction, at a luncheon of the Kiwanis Club, held in the Macdonald hotel Monday. He was the guest of Mayor Harry Ainlay.

MR. HOWE WAS in Edmonton for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Air Industries Transport Association, held yesterday.

He said aviation was his sole responsibility since 1935 and pointed out that Trans-Canada Airlines traffic between 1939 and 1946 had expanded 10 times and mileage had expanded in a like ratio.

Other guest speakers were Col. John Proctor, district administrator, Department of Veterans Affairs, and Fred Brown, casualty rehabilitation officer, DVA.

COL. PROCTOR SAID Edmonton territory of the DVA was the largest in Canada. There were 24,000 discharged veterans in the district.

Staff of the Redwood building, he said, is being reduced, and indication that the successful rehabilitation of veterans is proceeding well.

"It has been proven that today, a disabled veteran can do a job and do it well, provided he is placed in the right job," declared Mr. Brown.

He explained the phases a disabled veteran goes through in the casualty rehabilitation department.

Say Water Scheme Not Yet Approved

No action will be taken toward the appointment of a commission to administer legislation dealing with conservation of the eastern water slope, until the federal government has approved the bill, Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines said Tuesday.

THE BILL was passed by the Alberta legislature at the session which closed March 31, and is the result of an agreement between officials of the federal and provincial governments.

Under its terms a commission will be selected to deal with the expenditure of the fund, to which both the province and the senior government make contributions.

IT IS DESIGNED to preserve the timber and thus the advantages of the water shed on the east slope of the mountains, to ensure ample water for projected immense irrigation schemes.

Warmer Weather Is Forecast Here

Warmer weather, with clear skies, is in view throughout today and Wednesday, along with light winds. Widely scattered rain showers with briefly clouded skies will occur late this afternoon, but otherwise clear.

Maximum temperature yesterday was 45 degrees above at 3:30 p.m. and the low registered 33 above at 6 a.m. The overnight low read 28 degrees above at 3:30 a.m.

The estimated low temperature tonight is 32 above. Expected high temperature Wednesday is 60 degrees above.

Junior Fish Group Elects Officers

The new executive was elected at the monthly meeting of the Junior Fish and Game Association, held Monday night, in the RCMP barracks. Newly elected president, Douglas Sullivan, presided.

OTHER MEMBERS elected were: Vice-president, Bill Tyson; treasurer, Donald Wilson; secretary, Jim Varley.

Business session included discussion of new memberships, and the reading of the financial report. About 40 new members enrolled Monday night.

The "Portage," a film showing briefly the pioneer days, and their modes of travel, along with other films, concluded the meeting.

The Northern Alberta Fish and Game Association will pay bounty of five cents a pair for crows and magpies legs. The members have been divided into four groups to cover all areas of Edmonton, to rid the city of these predatory birds.

Next meeting of the association will be held on Monday, April 28, in the RCMP barracks.

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Plan Special Meeting Parking Meter Plan

Decided to hold a special meeting of city council to decide on a proposal of city commissioners that parking meters be installed in the city, and also to confirm proposed changes in the layout of the civic centre.

Referred to the bylaws committee a resolution by Ald. Fred J. Mitchell regarding land sales policy on city-owned property following its being serviced by sewer and water facilities.

Concurred in the recommendation of the finance committee that a grant of $300 be made to the YWCA towards the expenses of Miss Margaret Clark as a delegate to the World Conference of Christian Youth to be held at Oslo, Norway, next June. Also approved payment of a similar grant to the YMCA towards expenses of Les D. Wedman, also attending the conference.

Agreed to the recommendation of the finance committee that the Pleasant View subdivision be incorporated within the city limits as from Jan. 1, 1948.

Concurred in the recommendation of the bylaws committee that priority given veterans for civic employment cease as at Dec. 31, 1947, and that thereafter preference only be given to ex-servicemen in the case of other things being equal.

Rejected a request from residents of the Westwood district for a bus service. Thomas Forrier, superintendent of the transportation system, reported that the requested service, if established, would result in an annual loss of $8,652.

Accepted the recommendation of Thomas Walker, city assessor, that a discount of one per cent for payment of taxes on the first instalment due date be allowed, and set the instalment dates for Friday, May 16; July 16; Sept. 16, and Nov. 17.

Pat Lessard Is Bride Here

In a double-ring ceremony at Sacred Heart church recently Miss Patricia Margaret Lessard, daughter of Mrs. Jack Lessard of Edmonton exchanged wedding vows with Master Martin-Sgt. A. D. Voaklander of San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Voaklander. The Rev. Father J. Lessard, cousin of the bride, officiated at the ceremony, for which the church altar was banked with spring flowers and lilies.

GIVEN IN marriage by her uncle, P. Flynn, the bride wore a model gown of white duchess satin, fashioned with a portrait neckline edged with embroidered leaves. The full skirt was accented by a pleated waist which was also edged with embroidered leaves. A full length veil of net was caught to her head by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of American Beauty roses.

Bridesmaid was Miss Betty Demchuk of Athabasca. She wore an aqua blue dress, styled with taffeta bodice and bouffant net skirt and she carried an arm bouquet of rose, blue and gold flowers.

CLAIR VOAKLANDER, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Bernard O'Farrell was usher. During the signing of the register T. McLean sang Ave Maria. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Masonic Temple, when 40 guests extended congratulations to the couple. Receiving with the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Lessard, the bride's mother, chose an ensemble of mauve and gray lame, trimmed with gray squirrel. Her hat was a small model to tone, and her corsage was of Killarney roses.

MOTHER OF the bridegroom, Mrs. Voaklander, wore an aqua blue ensemble which was trimmed with sequins. Her hat was a matching blue, and pinned to her shoulder was a corsage of Sunset roses.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tier cake and flanked with vases of spring flowers and lighted tapers. Toast to the bride was proposed by Father Lessard. For travelling to Arrow Lake, Los Angeles on a honeymoon, prior to taking up residence in San Francisco, Mrs. Voaklander changed to a three-piece gray suit, with which she wore a small mauve flower hat and gloves to tone. Her corsage was of mauve gardenias.

Trousseau Tea Is Held For Miss Dorothy Walker

In compliment to her daughter, Miss Dorothy Walker, whose marriage to William Harvey Beecroft takes place May 8 in Montreal, Mrs. A. A. Walker entertained at her home at a trousseau tea Sunday. Sixty guests called during the afternoon and evening.

To receive the guests Mrs. Walker wore a dress of turquoise crepe, with a corsage of pink carnations at her shoulder. The bride-to-be was frocked in a white silk jersey, styled on princess lines with contrasting gold belt. Her corsage was pink carnations. Also receiving was Mrs. A. Beecroft, mother of the bridegroom-elect wearing a black afternoon dress trimmed with mauve, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Set in ecru lace the tea table was centred by a cut glass bowl of spring flowers and flanked by tall pink tapers.

During the afternoon Mrs. Beecroft and Mrs. James Pritchard, Jr., presided at the tea urns, while the Misses Libby Walker and Carole Gellibrand assisted in serving.

Mrs. T. A. Mansell and Mrs. James Pritchard poured tea in the evening, when the assistants were the Misses Lucy Jean Mansell and Libby Walker.

Northern Alberta Pioneers and Old Timers Association will hold its final spring dance in the new St. Albert Community hall Friday at 9 p.m. This dance is being held with the co-operation of the old timers in the St. Albert district. The dance will take the form of an old time party with a mixture of modern dances for good luck.

The Goodwill Depot, sponsored by the Social Credit Women's Auxiliaries will entertain at the depot, 9074 Jasper avenue, Thursday from 2 until 5 p.m.

GIVE YOUR FEET AN ICE-MINT TREAT

Wonderful, cooling relief for your tired, aching feet with ICE-MINT. Burning calamine, menthol cream, and all the foot pain that take you out of life can be forgotten. If you use cream while wearing ICE-MINT. You can feel it melt as it while you are still applying it—try it, a hot roller and you, the foot that keeps you happy with ICE-MINT. Small jar 25¢ - 4¢ each, economy jar $1.00.
